

a week program

fun for me

	Day Activities [Field reseach]	Day Activities [inhouse]	Evening Activities	"Kraftverket" Community House
Saturday, February 10.		The community house called Kraftverket opens. There are no activities planned the first day, so you have time to settle in, and get to know you hosts and Copenhagen.	Kraftverket is open. There are no activities planned, but if you find your way to Kraftverket, we will surely improvise something. You can buy food and drink here at reasonable prices during A Week in Denmark.	Kraftverket is a safehouse. It will hide refugees and larpers extraordinaire, who have lost themselves in Copenhagen. As a point of gathering, the AWiD crew will reside here, and help you with any questions you might have. Also, most activities will have Kraftverket as their meeting point.
Sunday, February 11.	Visit: Junior larp (Tempus Vivo) Junior larp is a force on the Danish scene. The large number of Danish junior larpers is unique in Scandinavia. Visit one of these child larps in costume, get the inside scoop from a organizer, and beat up them kiddies with that good ol' ultra violence. Participants: 15-20 Pick up location: Kraftverket Time: 11.00 am - 3:00 pm	Free spot.	Casual: Slumber party A casual evening at the community house. Smalltalk and gaming. Stress out and hang loose Location: Kraftverket time/date: 8-ish	There are no schedules for this community house, but Kraftverket is a land of opportunities. As attendees of other "A Week in" programs we have found that a central safehouse is a blessing for all. The house will feature: -games, old and new. -an improvised cinema, viewing classic, nerd related entertainment. -Internet, wireless as well as stationary pc's. -A café, where the AWiD crew will cook up cheap food and serve chilled or hot drinks at your leasure. -the chance for at local "pick up" showing you that "crazy Indian curry place" Or what not? -the standard tourist stuff: maps, guides and info as well as our own Copenhagen Underground Urban Exploration Maps About Kraftverket Kraftverket is a three floor building with a staff of its own. The basement is used for parties, intimate concerts and exhibitions. The first floor for meetings and social gatherings, and on the top floor music and arts. Kraftverket is governed by the principles of active democracy and is a power house of creativity, even when not serving AWiD purposes
