

The Awful Truth

Character Information Sheet

Character Name: Queen Jasmine

Classification: Domain Master (Lesser)

Summary: You are Queen Jasmine, regent of your own Domain. You are a sister to the Rose Queen. You are a exotic, caring monarch. You regard the Domains of your siblings as too rough and unrefined, even though they are beautiful in their own ways. The only Domain that approaches yours is that of your sibling Chrysanthemum.

Details: Long ago, you came to The Other, bound to a copse of remote woods that copied wonderfully to your Domain. The Greater bound your soul to your domain and tied it to your essence. Your domain has grown and with the addition of your fellow siblings there is a small cluster of related Domains that host all sorts of creatures that have found their way into your world.

Your domain is a lush jungle that houses immaculate palaces. Tigers and monkeys abound. Exotic birds fill the air, and the palaces gleam gold and cream against the jungle's deep greens.

Your sister The Rose Queen has been in existence for many years, nearly as long as civilization had come to where her Domain entered The Real. She was alone at first but then she took in a young female who she named Blaze. Later there was the man named Rime, and the Muse, Astrianna.

There was a young couple who once visited the Rose Garden. The man had been there before with another, but the young woman was a different girl than he originally wooed. The young woman was a frequent visitor, who did not come through due to trauma or drug use. She came because she had an active imagination and a desire to wander. She eventually married the man and things became busier, and she came less often. A tragedy befell her husband and the woman could not cope with her life without him. She began coming regularly again, but staying for extended periods of time, until her grief broke her body and she begged to remain in the Garden forever, for she was happiest here. The Rose Queen Acquiesced and bound her as the Muse of the Garden, someday to become the Third Lesser Power of the Garden.

Since that day, Astrianna has been the muse behind many a person's creativity and thoughts when they would come and rest in the garden. She whispers inspirations in their ears when they are not aware of her, magnifying their thoughts a little. She has taken to this role and performs it well. She has been more careful since the incidents that created the Blot. You suspect there may have been something she did that contributed to that.

You know Blaze and her counterpart Rime were instrumental in destroying the darkness that had entered the garden, but your sister never gave you details on what occurred there.

The Awful Truth

Character Information Sheet

You have been busy in your realm but still frequently visit your sister's realm. Your realm reflects your personality as a wild yet fair queen, who accepts some entropy and wildness from her court and its visitors. When you visit the Rose Garden you are amazed at how quiet and peaceful it is. There is quiet and peace in your realm but it is frequently interrupted with banter or rough play.

Recent Events

Your Sister has disappeared! Rime said she was dead, which means that this Domain might well fade, weakening your own Domain. Someone has managed to contact a number of Greater and get them to at least consider saving the Rose Garden.

The loss of the Rose Garden would significantly weaken your realm and the realms of your Siblings. You should try to convince the Greater to save the Domain and locate suitable candidates to do so. It will require them going through a judging process and ultimately becoming bound forever to the Garden.

You would also like to know at least what happened to your Sister. While not your actual sister, she was a spiritual sister in that you and she held the same position in different places. Those that rule Dominions do not die easily, nor do they just disappear. Something must have happened.
