

The Awful Truth

Character Information Sheet

Character Name: Queen Chrysanthemum

Classification: Domain Master (Lesser)

Summary: You are Queen Chrysanthemum, regent of your own Domain. You are a sister to the Rose Queen. You are an exotic, very proper monarch. You regard the Domains of your siblings as too rough and unrefined, even though they are beautiful in their own ways. The only Domain that approaches yours is that of your sibling Jasmine.

Details: Long ago, you came to The Other, bound to a remote mountaintop that copied wonderfully to your Domain. The Greater bound your soul to your domain and tied it to your essence. Your domain has grown and with the addition of your fellow siblings there is a small cluster of related Domains that host all sorts of creatures that have found their way into your world.

Your domain is a cool alpine forest with immaculately groomed trees, small water and stone gardens. Occasionally there are events where all of your subjects come together, but that is rare. You have serpentine dragons, shi shi dogs, and goblins as well as other beings who inhabit your Dominion.

Your sister The Rose Queen has been in existence for many years, nearly as long as civilization had come to where her Domain entered The Real. She was alone at first but then she took in a young female who she named Blaze. Later there was the man named Rime, and the Muse, Astrianna.

You have been told about the Denizens of the Rose Garden by your sister. One of these seems to stick with you and comes to mind now. There once was a young boy who was bullied by the bigger kids and frequently was deprived of his possessions by them.

Day after day, week after week, this abuse continued. It went unnoticed by the adults around the Boy and finally he stood up for himself.

He had his father's watch in his pocket that day, and he wasn't about to give it up. He wrapped his fist into a ball and punched the closest bully in the nose, sending him stumbling backwards. The other four were initially as stunned as the boy was, however they started coming after him, knowing that numbers were on their side. One grabbed an old pipe from the ground.

The Boy ran. He ran down Jarvis Street and squeezed through the fence, just ahead of his assailants. The thug with the pipe swung through the iron fence catching the boy in the back of the head, he fell to the snowy ground, his head cracked open and bleeding on the snow.

The Awful Truth

Character Information Sheet

The Rose Queen rushed to save him, and he agreed to live in her realm with what would have been his final breath. The damage done to his mind however caused him to revert to a more feline persuasion.

You know Blaze and her counterpart Rime were instrumental in destroying a darkness that had entered the garden, but your sister never gave you details on what occurred there.

You have been busy in your realm but still frequently visit your sister's realm. Your realm reflects your personality as a wild yet fair queen, who accepts some entropy and wildness from her court and its visitors. When you visit the Rose Garden you are amazed at how quiet and peaceful it is. There is quiet and peace in your realm but it is frequently interrupted with banter or rough play.

Recent Events

Your Sister has disappeared! Rime said she was dead, which means that this Domain might well fade, weakening your own Domain. Someone has managed to contact a number of Greater and get them to at least consider saving the Rose Garden.

The loss of the Rose Garden would significantly weaken your realm and the realms of your Siblings. You should try to convince the Greater to save the Domain and locate suitable candidates to do so. It will require them going through a judging process and ultimately becoming bound forever to the Garden.

You would also like to know at least what happened to your Sister. While not your actual sister, she was a spiritual sister in that you and she held the same position in different places. Those that rule Dominions do not die easily, nor do they just disappear. Something must have happened.
