

The Awful Truth

Character Information Sheet

Character Name: Silversleeves

Classification: Foundling

Summary: You found your way to the Garden a while ago, mostly through daydreaming. You visit very often, and you are frequently allowed to stay for long periods of time. You have struck up a friendship with the Feline Malkin, Meerie, and Blaze.

You genuinely like it here and have heard rumors of beings being allowed to become Honored Guests and not be forced back before you were ready to go. You don't like to talk about the Real and have intentionally forgotten why you like it here more than there.

Details:

You found the Rose Queen's Garden through your daydreams.

You could see an old building in the distance from your window; you frequently wondered what the building was and what could be there. You slipped off into the ether and found yourself in the Garden.

There you met Blaze, a beautiful angel like being; Rime, cold and firm in his duties; The Rose Queen, beautiful and regal; Malkin, the graceful feline and many others. You have become a frequent visitor in the garden, making your friends laugh with silly antics and your playful nature. You are happy when you are here and its shines through. You have had fun playing pranks with Malkin, dancing with Blaze and Meerie to the music that always seems to surround the place. You actually enjoy the music that seems to come out of nowhere, sometimes its very happy other times its very sad. It is always present, and while it is not really important to the Garden, it makes it a little more pleasant. You love to hear Rime's Stories when you can. Some of them are very clever! This is the happiest place you can think of. Maybe someday you can come here to be for as long as you want.

Sometimes you like to share your favorite limericks, which always seem to add to the merriment. (see attached)

You have seen the Blot, it is a terrible blight on the Garden, and gives you a cold feeling inside. It reminds you very much of the Real. You try to avoid it and hope that everyone else will avoid it as well.

You are fairly carefree when you are in the garden, but you get very sad when you leave, because you don't know if you will be allowed to come back. You feel very protective of your home and you wish that you could stay forever.

There are some very powerful beings in the Garden, maybe they are here to fix things?
