1 Appearances

- Used Carpet Salesperson (gUsedCarpetSalesman): Your wish can be granted by the Enchanter, who can enchant your loom and make it fly.
- Turned to Gold (gGold): The ogre has a wish-breaker stick. The dragon has mad alchemy.
- Turned into a Toad (gToad): To solve this wish, you have two routes. Go to the dragon, and find out that you need invisible dusk-blooming chokeweed to break a dragon spell. Get the chokeweed from the Toxic Toadstool Gardening Club, and bring it to the dragon so the dragon can perform the spell. Alternately, get the princess to change your color.
- Turned into a Squirrel (gTurnedIntoASquirrel): Wish solved by the giant Nathore's Cauldron of Plenty when fixed by Enchanter.
- Juxium the Magnificent (gFakeWizard): The wish can be resolved by any of the various royalty in game (the princess, the Queen of the Dragons, or the Fake Monarch, if he gets his wish.)
- Invisible (gInvisibleButNoisy): Wish can be granted by the princess, who can turn things different colors.
- Monarch Macrae (gFakeMonarch): Wish solved by the Usurpers Anonymous group's sword
- Turned into a Child (gTurnedIntoAChild): Wish can be solved by the ogre's wish-break stick.
- Turned into an Ogre (gTurnedIntoAnOgre): You can grant your wish by getting the Djinn to tell you how to break the spell. The solution? Say your spell backwards and clap three times. You aren't all that you're cracked up to be.
