

Anna

You will be playing Anna, Erik and Jan. These characters are the same ones included in other parts of “Three views of a secret”, with one major modification: Jan and Lennart are the same person. It matters not how previous parts have been played or will be played.

If Jan and Lennart are the same person, then Anna has run over her own child. Furthermore, Anna and Lennart have another child together that is still alive.

This game takes place about six months after the night of the accident. In these six months, Erik has moved in with Anna, perhaps fused together by feelings of guilt. Anna’s and Jan’s remaining child does not know that Anna was the driver of the vehicle, and Anna and Jan have agreed never to tell her about it. Also, Erik does not know that Anna purposely hit what turned out to be Ella.

Jan and Anna, have you decided how to name you child?

Jan

You will be playing Anna, Erik and Jan. These characters are the same ones included in other parts of “Three views of a secret”, with one major modification: Jan and Lennart are the same person. It matters not how previous parts have been played or will be played.

If Jan and Lennart are the same person, then Anna has run over her own child. Furthermore, Anna and Lennart have another child together that is still alive.

This game takes place about six months after the night of the accident. In these six months, Erik has moved in with Anna, perhaps fused together by feelings of guilt. Anna’s and Jan’s remaining child does not know that Anna was the driver of the vehicle, and Anna and Jan have agreed never to tell her about it. Also, Erik does not know that Anna purposely hit what turned out to be Ella.

Jan and Anna, have you decided how to name you child?

Erik

You will be playing Anna, Erik and Jan. These characters are the same ones included in other parts of “Three views of a secret”, with one major modification: Jan and Lennart are the same person. It matters not how previous parts have been played or will be played.

If Jan and Lennart are the same person, then Anna has run over her own child. Furthermore, Anna and Lennart have another child together that is still alive.

This game takes place about six months after the night of the accident. In these six months, Erik has moved in with Anna, perhaps fused together by feelings of guilt. Anna’s and Jan’s remaining child does not know that Anna was the driver of the vehicle, and Anna and Jan have agreed never to tell her about it. Also, Erik does not know that Anna purposely hit what turned out to be Ella.