

Defense

b.

Name	Henric Denzel
Relationship	Pointing out dangers in the victim’s lifestyle. The Victim has been seen by Henric in bars and diners where dubious people are socializing. The Victim has been seen carrying her sidearm visible and at times used her position to threaten other patrons.
Profession	Dock worker with a little extra on the side
Persona	A weary and unrestful individual with little regard for manners. Yet he has a certain aura of insight.
Living situation	Henric is one of the stations many cube dwellers. He lives in spartan living space commonly called a cube. It houses all the necessary living arrangements but not much more.

d.

Name	Richmond Dieter
Relationship	Influential person vying for the good character of the defendant. Richmond came in contact with the defendant through an AA meeting and has since then sought comfort in their company.
Profession	Veteran – Ex. Combator
Persona	Richmond comes across as someone who has seen the horrors of life and still believes in human’s ability to change. His, somewhat naïve outlook only extends to those working for others. His disregard for layers make him less than willing to get involved.
Livingsituation	Richmond lives alone and has been doing so since he got back from his service. He still keeps in contact with some of his squad mates but can mostly be found alone at the Videx theaters.

f.

Name	Adele Desrochers
Relationship	A character knowing about the triangular drama Adele was once a close friend to both the defendant and the victim. She give the impression of being someone who once were even closer than just a friend but is not willing to discuss their past. She did however keep in contact with the victim and have strong suspicions about the mysterious meetings.
Profession	Adele works as a Registrar on a separate division from Nathifa
Persona	Manipulative and disingenuous, two attributes that Adele tries to cover up with a facade of pleasantries and courtesy.
Livingsituation	The hectic life of a registrar demands central and comfortable living arrangements. At least according to Adele