Raph D'Amico for Golden Cobra 2020

2-5 players | 2 hours

A game about cosmic beings who recreate a long-dead humanity from its most emotional song-memories

This game is intended to be played over a video call, with one player presenting a Google slide deck.

It's best experienced in present mode so you can view the animations for drawing the cards (which is what you'll be doing for most of the game)
